REPORT

ON

PANEL DISCUSSION: “TRADE WAR BETWEEN USA AND INDIA: A MACROECONOMIC CONCERN”

Introduction

As part of the active learning pedagogy, a panel discussion was organized for the students of BBA- 3rd Semester (Macroeconomics) on the topic “Trade War between USA and India: A Macroeconomic Concern”. The aim of this activity was to provide students with practical exposure to real-world economic issues and enhance their critical thinking, communication, and analytical skills.

Activity Highlights

1. Panel Discussion

Students were assigned different roles such as Government Officials, Exporters, Consumers, Economists, and Trade Analysts. Each participant presented their viewpoints on the impact of the trade war between the USA and India.

List of students who have participated in the panel discussion or acted as panelists:

S.NO	Name Of The Students	Role Of Students In The Panel
1	PARINEETA	WTO
2	SHYAMLI	MODERATOR
3	SOURABH	USA GOVT.
4	DIVYA	ECONOMIST
5	ANJALI	INDIAN GOVT.
6	SAMRITI	INDIAN CONSUMER
7	HIMANI	INDIAN EXPORTER

1. Audience Interaction & Q&A Session:

The audience raised relevant questions and engaged in discussions with the panelists, which promoted interactive learning and deepened understanding of macroeconomic concepts. As following:

2. Reflection Notes:

All participants submitted reflection notes highlighting their learning outcomes, personal insights, and the overall experience of the activity.

- Students understood the macroeconomic implications of trade wars, including effects on GDP, employment, foreign exchange, inflation, and balance of payments.
- The activity helped in bridging the gap between theoretical learning and practical application.
- Different perspectives (policy-making, business, consumer behavior, and economic analysis) were brought together, giving a holistic view of the issue.

Conclusion

The panel discussion proved to be a highly engaging and informative session. Students actively participated, reflected on real-world issues, and enhanced their analytical and problem-solving skills. The session successfully met the objective of “learning beyond books into the real world” and contributed significantly to the academic enrichment of the students.
