On 7th July 2025, IQAC & library of Netaji Subhash Chander Bose Memorial Government College Hamirpur organized a Book Exhibition on the theme of “Motivation”. The exhibition showcased a wide range of books focused on the lives and teachings of great leaders, renowned Acharyas, and books related to moral values (Sanskaras).

Students from the all streams participated in this event. Students of School of Computer Applications also actively participated in this event. Students explored the exhibition and shared their thoughts on various motivational books. The students spoke about how the life stories of famous leaders and spiritual teachers can inspire individuals to face challenges, develop positive thinking, and lead a life of purpose and discipline.

The exhibition provided an opportunity for the students to learn about moral values, leadership qualities, and the importance of character building through reading. The event was well-received by the participants and helped in spreading awareness about the role of books in personal growth and motivation. Overall, the exhibition was a great success and encouraged students to develop a lifelong habit of reading and learning from the lives of great personalities.
