Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Application (PGDCA)

| PGDCA | |
|---|---|
| Programme Outcome | The students will be able to:➢ Learn programming languages including C, C++,➢ Information is also offered on the newest advancements in IT and communication systems, as well as a variety of computer applications.➢ Acquire knowledge and abilities in management, organisation, and communication in addition to computer and information technology.➢ They have a strong foundation in the engineering approach to software development.➢ They learn how to use the right learning techniques to acquire and apply new knowledge as needed.➢ Apply the required maths and computational knowledge for the discipline.➢ Will have the ability to select the methodologies, abilities, and tools required for designing accurate models when building software systems of varying complexity. |
| Programme Specific Outcome | ➢ Prepare yourself for the lucrative and employable profession of computer applications. |

| | |
|---|---|
| | <ul><li>Continue your education in computer science and applications.</li><li>Start your own business in the Indian and international software market.</li><li>Comply with industrial standards' requirements.</li></ul> |