

Master of Arts in Economics (MA Economics)

Programme Outcome

Over the duration of study, students are expected to acquire:

- Economic reasoning to view and analyze the working of the world by evaluating the cost of an action with the benefits generated.
- Ability to identify and solve of economic problems so as to contribute to the development of the subject through creative analysis and evaluation.
- Critical and creative thinking to analyze everyday problems faced by society, evaluate specific policy proposals, compare arguments with different conclusions to a specific societal issue and assess the role played by assumptions in such arguments.
- Scientific temperament of logical and rational thinking.
- Ethically articulate and apply values and ideals that demonstrate awareness of ongoing socio-economic challenges.
- Analytical tools for application of appropriate quantitative/qualitative techniques used in economics along with ICT, software etc.
- Resource management to plan usage of resources at different levels.
- Ability of research and development to apply principles of economics to analyze and evaluate issues of relevance.
- Specialization and employability through development of a deeper understanding, creativity, originality, analytical and critical skills.
- Research temperament through the use statistical and econometric tools and techniques that help in drawing inferences about various issues of economics importance and thereby contribute to the development of the subject.

Programme Specific Outcome

Upon completion of this Master's degree programme the students are expected to attain:

- an understanding of the theoretical and practical dimensions of economics;
- a scientific temperament through provisioning of concurrent input;
- exposure to a wide range of economic specializations and familiarization with different branches of economics.

