POLICY ON CODE OF CONDUCT & ETHICS Session 2022-23

"What you feed your soul is what you harvest with your actions."

NSCBM Govt. College Hamirpur is pleased to declare its Policy on Code of Conduct and Ethics to be abided by the Faculty Members and Students. This Policy indicates the standard procedures and practices for appropriate Conduct and Ethics for the entire Faculty as employees and all the Students who have enrolled in this College to study various Programs. It is binding on them to strictly adhere to and follow this Code of Ethics and Conduct and the rights, responsibilities including the restrictions flowing from it. This document lays down guidelines and norms to be followed to ensure good conduct and ethical practices in the College. The document is made available in both the forms-soft and hard of Prospectus as well as on the college website. All the stakeholders are expected to be well conversant with the Code of conduct and academic ethics, which can also be reviewed on the official website of the College. The College's endeavor by means of enforcing this Code is to pioneer and administer the student and staff discipline process that is egalitarian, conscientious, effectual and expeditious; and providing a system which promotes their growth through individual and collective responsibility.

Why Code of Ethics?

Code of Ethics

- INTEGRITY Maintain honesty and clear communication in the workplace.
- TEAMWORK Work together to get the job done.
- OBJECTIVITY Don't make career decisions based on whom you like best.
- CONFIDENTIALITY Maintain clients' confidence at all times.
- GROWTH Always pursue professional growth.

JURISDICTION

The College shall have the jurisdiction over the conduct of the stakeholders associated/enrolled with the college and to take cognizance of all acts of misconduct including incidents of ragging or otherwise which are taking place on the campus or in connection with the college related activities and functions.

The College may exercise jurisdiction over conduct which occurs on campus violating the ideal student conduct and discipline as laid down in this Policy which shall include

Regulation of the violation of the Codes

If there is a case against a student for a possible breach of code of conduct, then the committee handling grievances and its redressal, is forwarded for a suitable disciplinary action and shall inquire into the alleged violation and accordingly suggest the action to be taken against the said student.

The committee may meet with the student to ascertain the misconduct and suggest one or more of the following disciplinary actions based on the nature of misconduct.

Academic Integrity

As one of the premier College of Himachal Pradesh for varied courses, the College values academic integrity and is committed to fostering an intellectual and ethical environment based on the principles of academic integrity. Academic Integrity encompasses honesty and responsibility and awareness relating to ethical standards for the conduct of research and scholarship.

The College believes that in all academic work, the ideas and contributions of others must be appropriately acknowledged. Academic integrity is essential for the success of the College and its research missions, and hence, violations of academic integrity constitute a serious offence.

Scope and Purpose

This Policy on academic integrity, which forms an integral part of the Code, applies to all students at the College and required to adhere to the said policy.

The purpose of the Policy is:

- ✓ To clarify the principles of academic integrity, and
- ✓ To provide examples of dishonest conduct and violations of academic integrity.

- Failure to uphold these principles of academic integrity threatens both the reputation of the College and the value of the degrees awarded to its students.
- Every member of the College community therefore bears a responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.

The principles of academic integrity require that a student:

- a. Properly acknowledges and cites use of the ideas, results, material or words of others.
- b. Properly acknowledges all contributors to a given piece of work.

- c. Makes sure that all work submitted as his or her own in a course or other academic activity is produced without the aid of impermissible materials or impermissible collaboration.
- d. Obtains all data or results by ethical means and reports them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions.
- e. Treats all other students in an ethical manner, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This requires that a student neither facilitates academic dishonesty by others nor obstructs their academic progress.

Violations of this policy include, but are not limited to:

a. Plagiarism means the use of material, ideas, figures, code or data as one's own, without appropriately acknowledging the original source. This may involve submission of material, verbatim or paraphrased, that is authored by another person or published earlier by oneself. Examples of plagiarism include:

- ✓ Reproducing, in whole or part, text/sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication or the internet.
- ✓ Reproducing one's own previously published data, illustrations, figures, images, or someone else's data, etc.
- ✓ Taking material from class-notes or incorporating material from the internet graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research papers or thesis without proper attribution.
- ✓ Self-plagiarism which constitutes copying verbatim from one's own earlier published work in a journal or conference proceedings without appropriate citations.
- ✓ Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other materials to satisfy a course requirement.
- ✓ Paraphrasing or changing an author's words or style without citation.

b. Cheating: Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- ✓ Copying during examinations, and copying of homework assignments, term papers, theses or manuscripts.
- ✓ Allowing or facilitating copying, or writing a report or taking examination for someone else.
- ✓ Using unauthorized material, copying, collaborating when not authorized, and purchasing or borrowing papers or material from various sources.
- ✓ Fabricating (making up) or falsifying (manipulating) data and reporting them in thesis and publications.
- ✓ Creating sources, or citations that do not exist
- ✓ Signing another student's name on an assignment, report, research paper, thesis or attendance sheet.

Individual and Collective Responsibility:

The responsibility varies with the role one plays:

Student Roles: Before submitting a projects (if included) to the department, the student is responsible for checking the thesis for plagiarism using software that is available on the web (see resources below). In addition, the student should undertake that he/she is aware of the academic guidelines of the College, has checked the document for plagiarism, and that the thesis is original work. A webcheck does not necessarily rule out plagiarism. If a student observes or becomes aware of any violations of the academic integrity policy he/she is strongly encouraged to report the misconduct in a timely manner.

Faculty Roles: Faculty members should ensure that proper methods are followed for experiments, computations and theoretical developments, and that data are properly recorded and saved for future reference. In addition, they should review manuscripts and theses carefully. Faculty members are also responsible for ensuring personal compliance with the above broad issues relating to academic integrity. Faculty members are expected to inform students of the College academic integrity policy within their specific courses, to ensure minimal academic dishonesty, and to respond appropriately and timely to violations of academic integrity.

Institution roles: A breach of academic integrity is a serious offence with long lasting consequences for both the individual and the College, and this can lead to various sanctions. In the case of a student the first violation of academic breach will lead to a warning. A repeat offence, if deemed sufficiently serious, could lead to expulsion. It is recommended that faculty bring any academic violations to the notice of the department. Upon receipt of reports of scientific misconduct, the Principal may appoint a committee to investigate the matter and suggest appropriate measures on a case by case basis.

ANTI-RAGGING

The College has a coherent and an effective anti-ragging policy in place which is based on the 'UGC Regulation on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Colleges, 2009'. The UGC Regulations have been framed in view of the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to prevent and prohibit ragging in all Indian Educational Colleges and Colleges. The said UGC Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to the College and the students are requested kindly to follow the codes strictly.
