School of Computer Applications

World Wide Web Day Celebration Report

The School of Computer Applications at Govt. College, Hamirpur, celebrated World Wide Web Day on 6th August 2024. The event was coordinated by Prof. Lavli Rana, who presented his thoughts on the topic of the World Wide Web (WWW), highlighting its significance and evolution over the years. The event also included two main competitions: a declamation contest and a digital poster presentation, both of which provided students a platform to showcase their skills and creativity.

Event Highlights: The celebration featured two main events: a declamation contest and a digital poster presentation. These events aimed to provide students with a platform to showcase their oratory skills, creativity, and understanding of various WWW-related topics.

The themes for both events were carefully selected to inspire and challenge the participants, fostering a deeper appreciation for the technological marvel that is the World Wide Web.

Participants: Students from the BCA 1st, 3rd, and 5th semesters actively participated in both events. Their enthusiastic participation and the quality of their presentations reflected their dedication and hard work.

Event Proceedings: Prof.Madhuri Gupta warmly welcomed the judges, faculty members, and students, setting a positive tone for the celebration. She highlighted the importance of such events in fostering a sense of community and encouraging students to engage with technological advancements creatively and critically.

Prof.Lavli Rana, in his address, elaborated on the historical development of the World Wide Web, its current applications, and future prospects. His speech underscored the pervasive influence of the WWW in various fields, including education, commerce, and social interaction.

Declamation Contest: The declamation contest saw students delivering passionate speeches on topics related to the World Wide Web. The participants were judged on their content, delivery, and overall presentation skills. The winners of the declamation contest are:

1. IshitaKharyal - 1st Semester (1st Prize)
2. Arnav - 1st Semester (2nd Prize)
3. Akshat - 3rd Semester (3rd Prize)

Digital Poster Presentation: The digital poster presentation provided a visual platform for students to express their creativity and understanding of WWW-related themes. The participants were judged on the originality, design, and clarity of their posters. The winners of the digital poster presentation are:

1. Samriti - 1st Semester (1st Prize)
2. Shainvi - 5th Semester (2nd Prize)
3. Shubham Sharma - 3rd Semester (3rd Prize)

Conclusion: The World Wide Web Day celebration at the School of Computer Applications, Govt. College, Hamirpur, was a resounding success. The declamation contest and digital poster presentation provided students with valuable opportunities to showcase their skills and knowledge. The event not only celebrated the advancements brought about by the World Wide Web but also inspired students to continue exploring and innovating in the field of technology. The active participation and enthusiasm of the students, coupled with the support of the faculty, ensured that the event was both engaging and educational.
